PUPPY DOGS

6 and under 9 months

#5 Aellen The Play Maker: A very pretty boy with a strong head, good top skull, wide muzzle, more than adequate pigment and scissored bite. Eyes toned with current coat color. A puppy with a happy attitude and bone to spare.

#6 Aellen Tru Blue: With closed eyes, this boy was identical to his brother. His coat texture was correct and like his brother, had a wonderful topline - especially for his young age. Still, I would have liked a little less loin. On another day, had this boy outmoved his brother, he would have been my number one.

16 and under 20 months

#7 Aellen Tyso's Full Monty: Lovely boy with lots of bone, nice top skull and full muzzle with nice fill under his eyes. Good coarse coat. Best moving pup today. Just would have liked to see a happier attitude. My choice for First in Sweeps.

PUPPY BITCHES

6 and under 9 months

#12 Risa Kilt Lifter O'Sprindrift: Nice head, petite, well marked. Bite was even. Wonderful topline and the best shoulder of all the pups I had the opportunity to judge. Would have preferred more drive. This is a girl I would like to see after she matures.

#14 Harvest Midnight Melody: Head with proper beardie wedge, but could use more muzzle. Good coat texture and length of body. This girl outmoved her sister on the last go around.
Best of Opposite.

#16 Harvest Sugar and Spice: Similar to her sister in bone, correct length of muzzle, good bite, sweet expression. Proper coat texture. Perhaps due to uneven ground, her movement showed crabbing as she moved away.

VETERANS

Dog

#20 CH MACH Spindrift William Rikker: What a delightful boy! Although I would have liked a bit more breadth of skull, this beardie had attitude plus, looked and acted much younger than his age. He is a wonderful model for great genes.

Bitch

#23 Ch SRV-Aellen Blue Denim: Not flashy and I would like a stronger head, but this girl could move all day. She had the best shoulder of all dogs shown. Her lovely flowing movement won her best veteran.
